Entrance Hymn 90

Come down, O Love divine

Collect for the Day

Almighty God, who called your Church to bear witness that you were in Christ reconciling the world to yourself: help us to proclaim the good news of your love, that all who hear it may be drawn to you; through him who was lifted up on the cross, and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Reading - Ecclesiasticus 10: 12-18

Established in their own land, the people of Israel have forgotten the Lord who brought them through the wilderness and gave them the land.

Psalm 112: 1-10 (8:00am Eucharist only)

1. BLESSED is the man that feareth the Lord : he hath great delight in his commandments.
 2. His seed shall be mighty upon earth : the generation of the faithful shall be blessed.
 3. Riches and plenteousness shall be in his house : and his righteousness endureth for ever.
 4. Unto the godly there ariseth up light in the darkness : he is merciful, loving, and righteous.
 5. A good man is merciful, and lendeth : and will guide his words with discretion.
 6. For he shall never be moved : and the righteous shall be had in everlasting remembrance.
 7. He will not be afraid of any evil tidings : for his heart standeth fast, and believeth in the Lord.
 8. His heart is established, and will not shrink : until he see his desire upon his enemies.
 9. He hath dispersed abroad, and given to the poor : and his righteousness remaineth for ever; his horn shall be exalted with honour.
 10. The ungodly shall see it, and it shall grieve him : he shall gnash with his teeth, and consume away; the desire of the ungodly shall perish.
- Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.
